Situated on a 685m² section, this 1970s brick house has been affectionately maintained, including a recent paint job and upgraded LED lighting for homely, contemporary living. With 4 double bedrooms, parents will have to keep busy to fill up this home. 3 of the rooms are situated down the back of the house, while you can enjoy privacy at the other end of the property, in a master bedroom complete with ensuite, and the endless hot water benefits that come from Infinity Gas. The kitchen's wooden ceiling and trims combine with green panelling for character and flair. It features a gas hob and the latest top of the range F&P wall oven.
