26 Keswick Crescent, Huntington

Your Huntington home is an oasis of charm and style, it's sunny, spacious and private, and set amid nature. Designed to share quality time with family, entertain guests and provide a calm, relaxing retreat, your home draws inspiration from its natural surroundings. The large entrance foyer leads to an open-plan kitchen, dining and informal living area with tiled flooring, and an adjacent lounge is accessed through double glass doors. The upgraded kitchen is specified with stoneware benches and integrated appliances. The kitchen-living room opens to a sheltered walled courtyard that faces north and soaks up all day sun. It is perfectly private and provides a wonderful summer dining and entertaining space. The separate lounge is positioned for afternoon sun, the pitched, barn-style ceiling adds to the feeling of space, the arched windows frame views of the manicured gardens. A thoughtful layout separates the living areas and bedrooms with a long corridor, which can double as an art gallery. The spacious master-suite located at the end of this wing complete with a recently refurbished ensuite and a walk-in wardrobe, and views to the beautifully landscaped backyard.
