Buyers craving a brand-new luxury home with all the bells and whistles will be smitten by this ultra-modern creation. Divinity is in the detail. A haven for relaxation, this home is a harmonious blend of quality, contemporary style, and inspired features, and a revelation in the interplay of textures and surfaces. Proudly brought to you by the renowned AHS Group and designed by Mod Architecture, it delivers kerbside eye-candy, presents a highly considered palette of luxurious finishes, and is brim-full of special touches, including saltwater swimming pool. Spacious and sophisticated, the 308sqm interior exudes a feeling of everyday opulence. All living angles are covered. Purpose-built for effortless living and entertaining, the socially adept home embraces alfresco life with gusto. The open plan layout places a custom-built kitchen and scullery at its core. The symphony of streamlined surfaces and array of quality appliances make it a pleasure to create in. Cooking space links to dining and living zones, which adds beautifully to the versatility of the house. Movie nights are hosted in a media room that opens to the entertainment patio. Set well away from the main living zone, this room is an enticing escape at the close of day.
