Your home is worth more with Lugton's

26 Parklea Drive, Tamahere

Privately nestled in an enviable Tamahere position, just on the cusp of Hamilton City, awaits this sophisticated architectural retreat. Exquisitely designed interiors and exteriors reflect simplicity at its finest. Raw materials of cedar, Iroko timber, block and copper meld effortlessly together to create this timeless property. The environment is sublime with aged trees and unique plantings reflecting the home in a way that they become one with each other. Features include sun drenched breezeways, bespoke designer kitchen and bathrooms, open living zones and alfresco living areas which link to the superb pool setting. "This is a property which evokes a sense of individuality, come and be awe-inspired. "
