Crafted for comfort, entertaining and all-round relaxation, your stylish 280sqm architect-designed family abode is driven to making home life feel good and entertaining a dream. The portico adds space, function, and beauty to your home. Larger sliders separating internal and external spaces ensure minimal visual and physical boundaries. Ideal for movie aficionados who crave a dedicated space to replicate the cinema experience at home, your media room is a great place to enjoy a movie together, watch the big game or have a family game night. An office nook is discreetly recessed into the lounge. The spacious interior is light-filled and draws on a tasteful palette of textures and materials to create a compelling whole. Spacious bedrooms, tiled on-trend bathrooms, underfloor heating, a heat pump, gas fire and a gas hob ensure your home functions well, and the whole package is meticulously presented, indoors and out.
