

📍 18A Prospect Street, Putaruru

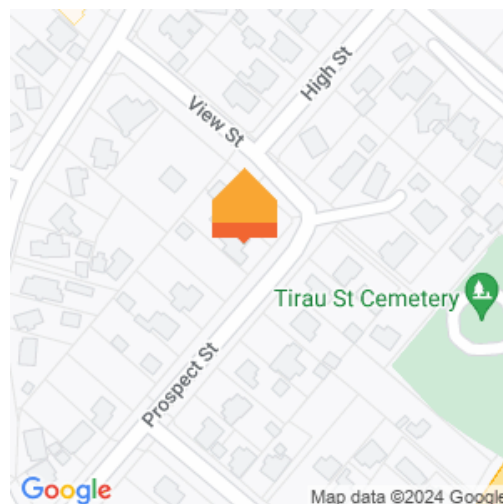

Just an easy walk to town and down a peaceful side street allows the new owner of this property to live right in the heart of Putaruru. This healthy home standard home has recently undergone an extensive renovation including new kitchen, bathroom, carpet and paint job. Its warm and inviting nature will make the owner feel at home straight away. If you are looking for a home with street appeal, an inviting outlook and an open plan layout this could be the property to you. The new owners will love the fact the lounge opens out with double French doors onto a sun-drenched deck. Enjoy your morning coffee here and watch the world go by or enjoy having guests over in the evening. Alternatively, it is boasting an excellent yield as well as a high demand for tenants which means this property is sure to catch the attention of a sharp investor. The tidy and low maintenance section allows scope for landscaping or simply relax and enjoy the easy-care surroundings. Contact Fraser today for more information or a private viewing.
