70A Campbell Street, Frankton

2 1

This 1980's home has had a gentle life with its current owner for the last 18 years, it offers that hard to find 'feel good' aura with limitless potential, set back from the road in its own private, fully fenced setting. Offering two generous bedrooms and a 'hobby' room separate from the main home, situated off the rear of the carport. Well appointed, this little hideaway will delight sun seekers who have security and privacy high on their priority list. A very appealing package for those seeking a first home, investment opportunity, or a lock up and leave. Priced to sell with an opportunity to be in before Christmas.
