Lugtons

Your home is worth more with Lugton's

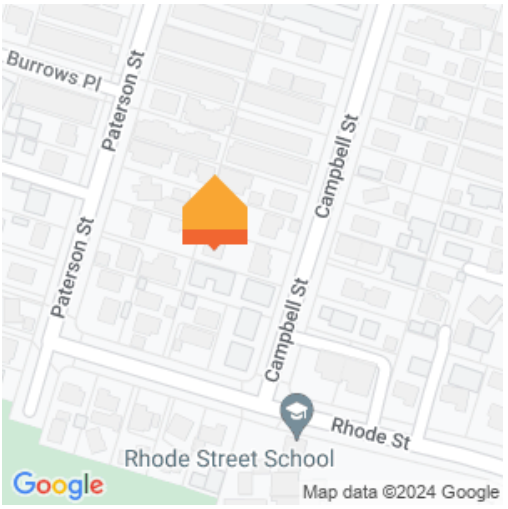

70A Campbell Street, Frankton

2 1 1

This 1980's home offers that hard to find 'feel good' aura with limitless potential, set back from the road in its own private, fully fenced setting. Offering two generous bedrooms and a 'hobby' room separate from the main home, situated off the rear of the carport. Well appointed, this little hideaway will delight sun seekers who have security and privacy high on their priority list. A very appealing package for those seeking a first home, investment opportunity, or a lock up and leave. Priced to sell this home will attract strong interest so get in touch today for more information. Copy the link below to download the information pack:
