24 Ranfurly Avenue, Fairfield

This home has so much style and is so easy to live in. Being in a convenient location it is perfect for singles, couples, or an investment property. Ranfurly Ave is a beautiful street which connects, with walking tracks and roads to the central city. River walks and the popular French tart cafe are a short stroll away. My vendor has thoroughly enjoyed living here, but its time to move out of town to be with family. Feel instantly relaxed in this low maintenance brick and tile home which occupies a prime front spot, directly opposite a picturesque reserve, take a seat and enjoy your view. Stylishly renovated with a touch of glamour, interiors are dressed in a natural palette and offer all the luxuries of modern living, including a heat pump, dishwasher, modern kitchen, security lights alarm and single internal access garaging. A generous master suite with double robe and built in wardrobe system, along with a second bedroom are complemented by a fresh modern bathroom. An easy care section makes this the perfect lock up and leave for weekend getaways. Woodstock is in demand, time is of the essence we invite purchasers to act now to view this fabulous property on offer.
