In a cherished family location close to Pukete School and The Base, your scene-stealer residence is a perfect choice for first-home buyers. Elevated for the views, it gazes across the leafy landscape to mountain ranges on the horizon. You can soak up in the outlook from so many rooms and chillax outside against this stunning backdrop, which gives an edge to alfresco living and entertaining. There is decking galore for relaxation and entertaining, and the peacefulness of being able to sit outdoors and watch the kids play in the yard, which is a lovely feature. Another attention-grabber is the modern kitchen that offers galley-like convenience, subway tile panache, and a social connection with the dining area. Open plan living brings the family together and everyday life spills outdoors with ease. Bedrooms are intimately linked to the outdoor environment. They share a family bathroom. Toilet and laundry are separate. There is carport parking and opportunities to add further value. In a great spot for a fun-loving family, you'll enjoy outings to riverside Braithwaite Park and hit the bike tracks of a weekend in nearby Pukete Farm Park.
