26 Keswick Crescent, Huntington

Designed to share quality time with family, entertain guests and provide a calm, relaxing retreat, your home draws inspiration from its natural surroundings. Your well maintained Huntington home is an oasis of charm and style, it's sunny, spacious and private, and set amid nature. A welcoming large entrance foyer leads to an open-plan kitchen, dining and informal living area with tiled flooring, and an adjacent lounge is accessed through double glass doors. Your kitchen has been upgraded with stoneware benches and integrated appliances. The kitchen-living room opens to a private north facing courtyard which soaks up all day sun. It provides a wonderful summer dining and entertaining space. The separate lounge is positioned for afternoon sun, the pitched, barn-style ceiling adds to the feeling of space, the arched windows frame views of the manicured gardens. A thoughtful layout separates the living areas and bedrooms. Your spacious master-suite is complete with a recently refurbished ensuite and a walk-in wardrobe, and views to the beautifully landscaped backyard.
