The warm afternoon/evening sun streams into your courtyard, so you can sit back, read your Kindle and enjoy your coffee. If you love to join in on fun. . . theres Craft, Bingo, Mahjong, Cards, Knitting and bowls. On top of that a monthly pot-luck night, and group outings. If you prefer to zip out and do your own thing. . relax. . . you can do that too. The two bedrooms are spacious, and the main one flows to your "semi-ensuite". When you go to sell, its all yours, there is a body corp fee of $59/week, so you won't need to tend to your gardens/lawns and driveways, or building insurance (its all taken care of).
