A renovation with true star power ensures your home is nothing like its former self. Swept into today's world through an extensive refurbishment, you'll be captivated by the modern styling, focus on function and celebration of outdoor living. And you don't have to leave home to work thanks to the studio suite which has its own pedestrian access for clients. Turned on its head by a quality remodel, your home has undergone a massive transformation - only the rimu floorboards remain as a testimony of the past. Everything is new - the wiring, the roofing, the double glazing, the lighting, the overall configuration, the decor, the laundry, the internal double garage, the studio, the kitchen, the bathrooms, and the landscaping

Step into a bespoke environment reborn with flair and taste. No partitions between kitchen, dining and living areas mean your family is treated to larger, combined common spaces. This light-filled pavilion teams up with a full-length deck so you can savour the indoor-outdoor living experience and entertain family and friends in style. Chic sophistication abounds throughout.
