11 Keston Crescent, Flagstaff

Crafted for everyday enjoyment, this double-glazed brick, board and tile home speaks volumes for effortless family living. It's in the right spot for sought-after north-city schools and close to local amenities, including shops, medical centre and playground. Configured for family life, the well-formed home is designed with ultimate functionality in mind. Space is utilised efficiently, and the free-flowing living environment is suited to seamless indoor-outdoor entertaining and family life. Ranchsliders take relaxation outdoors and allow children to come and go as they please. The backyard is fenced for safety and privacy. Bedrooms are spacious, restful, and accommodating to a growing family. Parents can enjoy a master suite with a walk-in robe and ensuite. A heat pump and ventilation system deliver year-round comfort. The double garage is internally accessed. The Keston neighbourhood is popular with families wanting to live close to Te Ao Marama School, Hare Puke Destination Playground and the burgeoning amenities of Flagstaff and Hamilton north. Families seeking lifestyle convenience and effortless everyday living in a desirable location should inspect.
