Neatly nestled on an elevated site, this 1970's brick beauty offers you the flexibility of a lock up and leave life style with an easy care section. You will love the freshly renovated home for its large open plan family area and the space for growing families or flat mates in the 4 bedroom family wing. Being north facing you will be soaked in natural light while enjoying the views and privacy that elevated homes offer. Entertaining guests will be a breeze with the kitchen spilling out on to the rear deck while the young ones play in the large lounge and dining areas. The office and laundry nooks give great flexibility and efficiency while allowing you to close off any mess when necessary. The newly installed second bathroom is great for extended families and teenagers or possibly a home office with external access. The main family bathroom, with a feature bath, also acts as an ensuite to your large master bedroom. All renovation work has been completed to a high level by a qualified builder.
