Your tidy mature 1024sqm property is an offering of undeniable family appeal located in a neighbourly area where Aberdeen School and Wake Park are just down the road, and Dinsdale shops are handy. Built during the sixties and extended in 1987, the brick home has been a treasured family nest for many years, but it's time to entrust it to the care of new owners. Your home has great capacity for entertaining, hosting big gatherings and nurturing your family. The practical layout allows children and adults their own living spaces and sleep zones. Parents can relax in their own wing which is supported by a large ensuite with a separate toilet. Your kitchen opens to the family room for easy social connection. There is an office, a sheltered entertainment deck off the dining area, a separate laundry, flued gas heating and a ceiling fan in the lounge for good air circulation. Skylights contribute to the bright ambience. Your home is alarmed and has attached auto garaging with a big robust loft. Exotics, natives and fruits adorn the grounds. Kids can romp around in the secure backyard.
