10A Brocas Avenue, Hillcrest

This refreshed and well-maintained home speaks volumes for family living. Large enough for a family to pursue their individual passions and versatile enough to accommodate extended family or independent children, it is big on space and living options. A studio adjoining the four bedroom home contains open plan living and bedroom, a bathroom and kitchenette. Canadian birch flooring adds pizzazz and ensures an easy-care environment. Both the studio and main lounge open onto a wrap-around deck for summer relaxation. Upgrades include some LED lights, partial double glazing, new flooring, carpet, some painting and a large new garden shed. Home to one careful owner over the past 20 years, the property has excellent creature comforts, including a heat pump, wall heater, fireplace and HRV, and the right address for Hillcrest schools and university. There is oodles of storage throughout and a double garage with internal access. Plenty of off-street parking is available within the fenced and gated section which has a selection of fruit trees and space for kids to play. Shops and schools are walking distance.
