There's so much to love about your home which serves up elevated views, privacy and stylish outdoor living in an exclusive cul-de-sac environment. Veiled from the road, the true worth of your peaceful haven is revealed as soon as you step indoors. Bright airy innovative interiors, set under soaring ceilings, have a picturesque outlook over the urbanscape to the Hakarimata Ranges. The ambience is one of instant relaxation. There is a lounge for quiet laid-back living, and a family zone and food hub where everyone can come together. Your stone-look kitchen has sleek good looks, quality appliances, a gas hob and well-organised scullery for food preparation. Opportunities abound for picturesque outdoor living and entertaining in groomed garden settings back dropped by district views. The portico garden room offers all-weather use. Your master bedroom is a large, inviting retreat opening to the courtyard and vista. It features a tiled ensuite, including a fully tiled walk-in shower, and a walk-in robe. Family bedrooms are all double-sized supported by double wardrobes. Storage includes a walk-in linen cupboard, attic space and a useful utility room off the double carpeted garage.
