On the outskirts of Cambridge this 2.9 hectare property must be worth considering as a landbank proposition for the future or just somewhere to live so handy to town. The 3 bedroom Lockwood home has spacious living plus an office suite attached to the house that would be ideal for a fourth bedroom as well. A huge shed plus old cowshed add to it's attraction as a tradesman's depot. The present tenant is keen to stay making it ideal for somebody looking for an investment with an income.
