

Sold

📍 322B Chatsfield Drive, Te Awamutu

2 1 1

First home buyers, busy professionals, retirees, if you are looking for something special with an outlook and atmosphere then check out this delightful 2 bedroom spacious brick home built in 2004. Instantly appealing on arrival, bordering Chatsfield Drive Reserve, this huge park creates such a wow factor. The stunning views are a wonderful backdrop for this lovely home and garden, you literally live in the view inside and out. A great place to come home too, a real love connection. The light airy open plan design is ideal for relaxed easy living. Ranch sliders from the master bedroom and living area give access to the covered patio and garden, a great place to soak up the stunning outlook, this has created a real extension to the living area, the perfect environment for summer entertaining and relaxation with family and friends. A heat pump provides all year round comfort, bathroom with bath and shower, separate toilet, internal access single garage with auto door. Plus a great group of friendly neighbours, so conveniently close to Pekerau Primary School for young families.

Rates

$2,439.54

