9/24 Insoll Avenue, Enderley

Conveniently located close to a wealth of amenities, this brick and tile unit will attract considerable interest from both astute investors seeking to add to their portfolios, downsizers and first home buyers alike looking for a cute and comfortable home. Inside, this tidy unit features two large bedrooms and a sunny living area which spills to the outside through the ranchslider. The bathroom has a wet floor and the unit is wheelchair friendly with extra wide doorways. Other highlights include the flat tidy section, a carport with a small shed for your garden tools, and of course the brick and tile construction with aluminium joinery. In terms of location, things couldn't be more convenient. The Davies Corner shops, including Couplands and the Tui Medical Centre, are nearby with a host of other key amenities. Peaceful and private yet incredibly convenient, this cosy home is guaranteed to attract a lot of attention. Do not delay - call now for more information.
