

11 Reeves Close, Fairview Downs

Looking to stop renting and start owning, or adding to the Investment Portfolio? Then you need to view this home. Once inside you will see what this home offers. Open plan living with a large kitchen that looks out to the farmland behind. Three bedrooms, single internal access garage, with carport are all wrapped up making this a complete package - what a great opportunity for first home buyers seeking their first step into home ownership. The established planting frames the home with opportunity to develop more. Room for a trampoline, this will be very appealing to young families wanting space and a place to call their own.
