Searching for your first home? Not wanting to have to update a kitchen or bathroom?

If you've said yes to either or both or the above questions then this great home is a must see. There's more to this home though than just the kitchen and bathroom. The home has a fully fenced back yard which is the perfect spot for the kids and pets to play. There's a deck and patio area that's just perfect for those summer BBQ's with friends and family and you are also only a short walk to Mooney Park which has a playground and plenty of room to kick a ball around or play some cricket all with the benefit of not having to mow it yourself. The home has 3 bedrooms, a good sized lounge that leads onto the deck and heatpump and ventilation system that make for year round comfort. With a double garage and shed there is plenty of room for storage and more than enough space for 2 cars parked on the driveway.
