106 Aberdeen Drive, Dinsdale

Repurposed for modern living, your home has been given a fresh contemporary lift. It's out with the old and in with the new, with the older style classic look of your 1970s brick home having been turned on its head thanks to a refurbishment to major areas including kitchen, bathroom, and laundry. You'll be instantly attracted to the vibrant interior, and relish the comfort afforded by ceiling insulation, a new heat pump and a sunny conservatory. The flooring, carpets and toilet have been replaced, and new paintwork has enlivened both the interior and exterior. You can entertain alfresco and enjoy life outdoors under the sheltered patio or in the landscaped gardens, which are designed for easy management. There's garaging for your car and off-street parking for visitors. Your fabulous start-up home offers the benefits of handy location in walking distance of Aberdeen School. Dinsdale shopping centre and Frankton commerce are handy. The hard work has been done, leaving only some minor titivations to consider, which you can choose to complete in your own good time.
