Reigning over a large 1128sqm section with a leafy gully outlook, this home not only has a great family mindset, it is precious about privacy. Cocooned down a right-of-way, the property is hidden from the road in a lush urban oasis. Expressed in three distinct volumes, the home is divided into a master domain, spacious open plan living and a children's wing. A second lounge adjoins the master bedroom and both living zones open to nature. The configuration allows parents to enjoy some well-earned peace and privacy. Built in the 1990s and blessed with a warm personality and relaxing outdoor niches, the brick home has inherent charm. It is fully insulated, on gas hot water and heating, and has a super-size double internal access garage, which is a big asset. The laundry is separate.
