Every now and then you get a starter home that has it all. The romantic feels you get from character are from the heart, and 38 Matai Street serves the feels up in spaces. This cosy home with high ceilings and a good size living space also has a modern kitchen with all electric appliances. The two bedrooms are large, there's a fresh bathroom with separate toilet and good storage throughout. Outside, the section has plenty of lawn and garden front and back for you to enjoy. It's fully fenced at the back and there's even room to put up a pool this coming summer. The single garage on the 392m2 freehold section completes the picture.
