94 Shakespeare Street, Cambridge

3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, 1 car, 1 kitchen

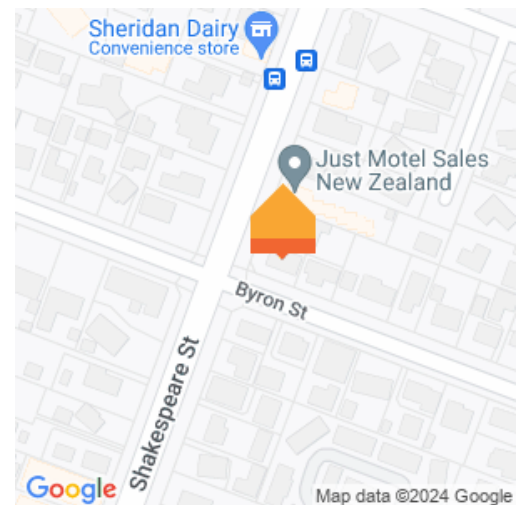

With its pleasant kerbside appeal, you'll be instantly drawn to this beautiful, sun-soaked character home just minutes from the Cambridge main street. This 1950s bungalow has recently been transformed with contemporary features that have lovingly retained its original heritage style and architectural integrity. From the moment you step onto the traditional front porch and enter the refreshed interior you'll be wowed with aesthetic appeal. Airy french doors open onto your large, welcoming open plan kitchen, living and dining area, complete with window seat. Delight in the functionality of your brand new kitchen that also acts as a social hub. The central hallway eases entry into a separate laundry, office and three double bedrooms, serviced by a spacious family bathroom. Indoor and outdoor spaces are harmoniously blended as the thoughtfully designed floor plan spills out onto a private garden, designed for maximum sunlight during the day and alfresco evening dining or soaking in the spa. You will have peace of mind knowing all the hard work of renovating inside has been done with room to add value through finishing off the landscaping. Move in and enjoy the freshly painted interior and exterior spaces, new kitchen and bathroom, updated covered carport, modern landscaping, new fencing, and electric gate. Children and pets can play safely and to their heart's content outside. Wander to Cambridge town centre, Leamington village shops across the road for the quick milk and bread run. In zone for Leamington School, Cambridge Middle School, Cambridge High School, local parks, and get on the expressway within moments.
