Classically elegant and oh-so spacious, your family retreat shows a love for the finer things. When it comes to relaxation and recreation, the home makes a big splash thanks to its large indoor and outdoor living areas, a fully equipped media room, a saltwater pool, spa, and an in-ground trampoline. Kids will love spending time outdoors and poolside parties and barbecues will be a big hit. Designed for optimal enjoyment, your luxurious interior flows seamlessly outside, allowing the party to spill into sculpted alfresco spaces. A double door entry into a high-stud, tiled foyer sets the tone. Eyes are instantly drawn to the glass wall at the end of the entrance hall framing a water feature in a tropically themed garden. Swathes of glazing flood the interior with daylight, sun flows in generously and the outdoors is visually present. The media room, a dining area, and fabulous portico with an in-built fire extend off your big, welcoming open plan domain. Your entertainer's kitchen interacts with the portico and its sleek and spacious work surfaces, appliances and a scullery take care of hosting duties. Five bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom provide ample private space for family and guests.
