1 Hinau Street, Maeroa

Full of kerbside appeal, eyes are easily drawn to your beautiful, sun-soaked character home just north of the CBD. Lovingly transformed over the past six years, the 1920s bungalow has had its character enlivened through contemporary insertions while staying true to its original features and integrity. Fit for modern life, your home is a stunning example of how vintage can be revived and have relevancy in the 21st century. Aesthetics are upheld from the moment you step up to the traditional front porch and enter the refreshed interior. A polished timber hallway forming the main artery of your home has living and bedrooms branching off on either side. The original fireplace, complete with 1920s tiles, has been retained for looks, and is a focal feature of the lounge. Your open living and dining area flowing off the formal sitting room is a friendly gathering spot full of light and cheer. All three bedrooms have been recently carpeted, and the bathroom is modernised and has a warm timber glow. Both the kitchen and rear bedroom open onto a covered patio which is an enticing spot for lazing or meals outdoors.
