96 Cumberland Drive, Flagstaff

Your four-year old brick home has a sophisticated urban edge and ticks all the boxes for modern family living and school zoning. Style, comfort and a warm heart make it effortlessly liveable, and the Flagstaff location is hard to beat. A welcome sanctuary to come home to, your perfectly formed residence wants for nothing. Open plan living, media lounge, hallway, and master suite all spill onto a large sunny patio through a series of ranch sliders. Swathes of double-glazed doors and windows flood the interior with light, create a bright, uplifting ambience and good airflow. Food prep and hosting is made easy thanks to a big kitchen with a gas hob, double wall ovens, a scullery and social island where children and guests can sit and chat. Superb freedom of movement and a great social vibe make your home ideal for entertaining and relaxed everyday living. A wide central hallway and generous layout make the interior very navigable and user-friendly. Bathrooms are stylish, toilets are soft close, and your laundry is separate. If an office is needed, the fifth bedroom off the entranceway hallway is the obvious choice. Indoor-outdoor flow allows children to come and go as they please.
