7C Church Street, Tirau

New to the market and an opportunity for the First Time Homeowner to get onto the prized property ladder. We have this lovely gently contoured, easy to build on, 953m2 residential section with covenants that would allow you to build a home to meet the First Time Homeowner requirements. A Mortgage Broker and Builder are also in place to assist in making this dream a reality. Meer meters from the ever popular Tirau main street, and a short drive to Cambridge and onto work in Hamilton which is all well with in reach. For further details on how this can be achieved give Vaughan Wetton a call to find out more on 021 661 518.
