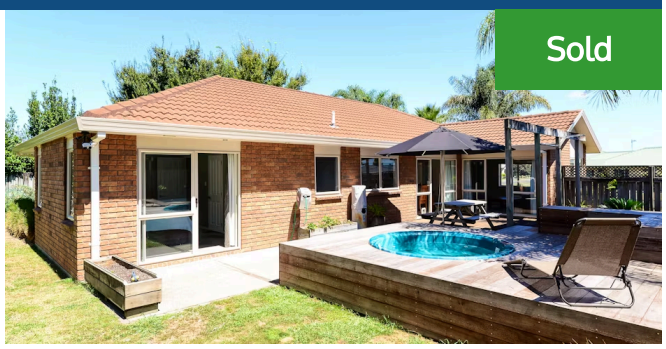
Your home is worth more with Lugton's



67 Spinnaker Drive, Flagstaff

3 1 2

Palm trees, spa pool and dedicated outdoor living create a relaxed sub-tropical atmosphere at this tidy brick home in the heart of established Flagstaff. Whether you're starting out as a young family, keen to upscale your address, or looking for an easy retirement home where you can laze the days away, this well-presented property has broad appeal. It boasts the right credentials for schools and enjoys a quiet neighbourhood setting close to main arterial routes for effortless commuting. Spacious open plan living brings together dining, lounge and kitchen in a warm cohesive environment. Three peacefully separated bedrooms include a fully-packaged master suite that opens to the private alfresco. This sun-hugging entertainment zone is designed to be enjoyed with friends and family. There is double internal access garaging and two well-appointed bathrooms with good vanity areas. Parks and shop are handy. Everything is packed into this home for a happy family future.
