The first thing you notice when you walk down the drive, away from the colour and hubbub of Five Cross Roads is how quickly it gets quiet. Then, a lovely fully fenced 1940s brick home with sun drenched deck and large lawn reveals itself. This welcoming home has been renovated and updated throughout, the living spaces are sunny and airy, warmed by a gas fire, insulated top and bottom with brand new kitchen and carpet. Neutral tones throughout mean that all your furniture will immediately look right at home. There are 3 good sized bedrooms PLUS an adorable outside studio - separate to the house and suitable for whatever your heart desires. Inside the house an HRV, full family bathroom and an additional toilet provides everything you need for easy and enjoyable family living. And if you need anything else, just nip back up the driveway to the colour and hubbub of Five Cross Roads. Call Dave to view immediately.
