The current owners have purchased their new home so are looking to sell their family home to its next owners. Your new home is a stunning 2018 build with all the right modern features for a wide range of buyers. Offering a 96m² (more or less) home on a freehold title (no body corp) in the Huntington area with easy access to Te Manatu Park. Spilling off the open plan dining room and kitchen is your recently updated & paved entertaining area. Designed to catch the morning light, you will love starting your day here over the warmer months. The fully fenced grassed area allows space for children and pets. With 2 bedrooms and 2 bathroom your new home will cater to small families, and downsizers who will love the low maintenance easy care section. First home buyers who have been looking to buy in the exclusive Huntington area now have an opportunity at an affordable price. With a dairy and early childhood centre within a 1 minute walk you will enjoy the relaxed lifestyle this home has to offer. Access to Gordonton Road and the Rototuna Shopping centre couldn't be easier. Get in touch today to arrange a viewing or visit our Sunday open home. There is not a lot available at this price range, so it is sure to sell fast. Call Jason 021 534 666. For an information pack copy and paste the below link on your web browser
