Smart usage of space, natural light and outdoor connections are key design elements of your contemporary home on Hare Puke Drive. You'll instantly warm to the home's easy liveability and aesthetically pleasing design that maximises flow and provides well-structured spaces for living and sleeping. You can retreat to the separate lounge of an evening for some rest and relaxation. Four double bedrooms cater to your growing family. Tidy and trim, indoors and out, your low maintenance brick home is an effortless choice. Two heat pumps and double-glazed joinery speak of easy comfort, and the 601sqm section has driveway parking in front of the double garage.
