

132 Forest Lake Road, Forest Lake

This love-at-first-sight home has been meticulously restored for modern life. It is set in immaculate grounds on a new free hold title that will also be issued before settlement. The in-depth renovation extends to full insulation, new wiring and new plumbing, giving peace of mind to new owners for years to come. Interiors are dressed in a contemporary colour palette and reconfigured for open plan living. This central environment not only incorporates an office nook, it spills outdoors onto an entertainment deck. The easy transition between internal and external spaces ensures effortless family living and entertaining over summer. Tastefully executed upgrades to the bathroom and kitchen ensure these key areas are both stylish and functional. The 141m²-plus layout also packs in three double bedrooms and a separate laundry. There is heat pump comfort, a separate double garage and a large concrete forecourt for parking and ball games. Everything is taken care of. The child-friendly section is fenced, gated and safely accessed off a shared driveway. New life has been breathed into this attractive entry-level property that enjoys the best of Forest Lake living.
