The owners say that everything they ever needed was just down the road, they've enjoyed the neighbourhood, the children could walk over the road to Glenview Primary, all the other local schools were close, and that the bus straight to The Base has been a great convenience too. If you've thought the idea of a do-up in a very desirable neighbourhood was your next plan. . . then you've got to come and see 68 Lewis Street. The owners have some exciting new plans and are seriously selling. Offers will be presented on Wednesday 10th February, Call Lisa Sigley to view 021722281. www.lisasigley.com
